MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Yet another monthly edition of E- Magazine, 'The Aloysian' that brings to you the latest updates, events and the memories of the College, now is at your disposal. The overwhelming response of students, parents and alumni /ae to the first issue of the E-Magazine has encouraged us to bring out this second edition.

The 70th Independence Day was celebrated in the College with the unfurling of the National flag followed by a cultural programme on patriotic theme. Our nation still remains captive of poverty, hunger, corruption and exploitation. It is important that all of us work together to free our nation from internal forces where Human Rights are never deprived.

The students and Alumni of St Aloysius PU College organized a Mega Charity Event – CAUSE 2016 that has helped the students not only to raise funds for the poor and the needy but has made them to introspect, experience and reach out to the poor of our Society.

The College applauds the students achievements and encourages them reach greater heights. Our students have brought glory to the College by bagging Overall Championship in National Level Intercollegiate Competition organized by Sarosh Institute, Chess tournament and Swimming Competition organized at the District Level by the PU Board.

The Parents-Teachers Association plays significant role in our college. We Congratulate the Office Bearers of PTE 2016-17, Mrs Seema Shenoy, PTE Vice President and Mr Loknath, PTE Joint Secretary and wish the team a successful academic year ahead.

Rev. Fr Melwin Mendonca SJ
Principal
